This year's CWU photography competition is now open to CWU members and their families!

The CWU Equality, Education & Development department is calling for your poetry and photography entries for any of the following four categories:

- The Fourth Emergency Service
- Together Apart
- Love
- Nature Reclaimed

Participants can make one entry per category before the 31st August 2020 deadline for a top prize of £200.

Please send your entries to learn@cwu.org and include: your name, branch and any short explanation of your entry that you might deem necessary.

Photographic entries can be digitally manipulated if you wish. They can be taken on any device, including smartphones. Please send them as .jpg attachments or you can send a link to a Dropbox account or similar.

Poetry entries can be sent as Word or Doc files or be recorded as spoken word if you prefer and sent as MP3 or MP4 files.
